Utah law requires the following:

- A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.
- The objectives of a parenting plan are to:
  - provide for the children's physical care and emotional stability;
  - provide for the children's changing needs in a way that minimizes the need to change the parenting plan;
  - minimize the children's exposure to conflict between the parents;
  - state the authority and responsibilities of each parent to the children;
  - encourage the parents to meet their responsibilities to their children through agreement rather than judicial decision; and

- protect the best interests of the children.
- Each parent must follow the parenting plan even if the other does not. If a parent does not follow the parenting plan, the court may find that parent in contempt of court.
- For further guidance, see Utah Code 30-3-33

This parenting plan is: (Choose all that apply.)
