Release Statement

"I am voluntarily submitting this application for participation in the Village Project Mentor Program sponsored by the Utah State Courts. If accepted as a mentor, I agree to abide by the rules, regulations and policies of The Village Project Mentor Program as well as the rules of other entities with which I will come in contact as a mentor such as schools, community centers, etc. Further, I fully release all affiliates, employees, officers, directors and agents thereof from any and all liability, claims, cause of action, costs and expenses associated with my participation in the Village Project Mentor Program. This Release does not apply to any insurance or other coverage which may be available to me as a volunteer with the Utah State Courts or its subsidiaries or affiliates. I also give my permission for an authorized representative of the Utah State Courts to conduct periodic criminal record checks on me as part of being a mentor. I understand that my name, phone number and any information I supply to the Village Project regarding my mentoring, may be released to other entities (e.g. judges, probation/intake officers, DCFS workers, etc.) directly involved with the Juvenile Court. I hereby release the Third District Juvenile Court from any liability associated with the use of this information."

I have read the above Release Statement and agree to its contents.

Volunteer Confidentiality Statement

The right of privacy guaranteed to Juvenile Court and the Division of Youth Corrections clients requires that confidentiality of case information be maintained by the Utah State Courts Restorative Justice Programs in accordance with Utah statutes, case law, court policy and orders, and youth corrections procedures.

The Juvenile Court has the sole right to release juvenile justice system information regarding a minor. Neither the minor nor the parents can authorize the release of such records. The probation officer can release such information in the capacity of a representative of the Court. Such information may only be released on an individual or agency right-to-know and concomitant need-to-know basis.

No one may interview, photograph, televise or in any way reveal the identity of any minor under the supervision of the court or probation unless with prior written permission of the minor's parents, the probation department, and the Juvenile Court judge.

The Village Project Coordinator is responsible for assuring that all persons having access to confidential information have read and understand the access limitations, the legal consequences for violations regarding confidential documents, and will adhere to the imposed consequences for violations regarding confidential documents and will adhere to the imposed limitations.

As a volunteer for the Utah State Courts Restorative Justice Program, I agree that any information read or received by me in regard to any client will be held strictly confidential and will not be mentioned or shared with anyone not connected with the Court, Division of Youth Corrections, or the Restorative Justice Program on a need to know basis.

I further understand that the Restorative Justice Program carries no vehicle or other insurance for me and I agree to use public transportation or carry the appropriate vehicle liability insurance when traveling on Restorative Justice business.
